

Process: I tested a number of massings with differing amounts of exposed surface area and found that the highest net solar benefit came from a form where the upper floors cantilevered over the lower floors to provide shading. Massings that did not included the shading provided by the cantilever actually resulted in negative net solar benefit.

Net Solar Benefit: 1857

Building Area: 91,830 sf

