

Assignment 7 - Solar Benefit Meyerson Massing
Justine Huang

Within my process, I created a shading device that was at a 30 degree tilt in order to optimize it for solar gain during the winter time. This would also allow for more optimal shading during the summer months. I also pushed the front wall in to be recessed within the massing to provide even more shading for that entire building.