

Summer Sky

Winter Sky

As the facades of East and West are facing the sun during the daytime, especially the West facade. It has the lowest solar radiation benefit. So by adding some concaved shading for the East and West facades, the radiation benefit will be increased from these two facades. The value of the net radiation benefit value changes from -11431 to -8594.